FRENCH OFFICIALS DO NOT BELIEVE GERMANY WILL ACCEPT TREATY TERMS

Meanwhile All Work on Final Word to Huns is Being Rushed to Completion.

ITALIAN CLAIMS ARE STILL STUMBLING BLOCK

Admiral Kolchak Gets Serious Set Back at the Hands of Bolshevik Forces in Russia

Hungarian Soviets Advance Against the Czechs.

(By Associated Press)

There is every evidence that the leading figures of the peace conference in Paris are endeavoring to hasten the delivery of the allied reply to Germany's counter proposals to the terms of peace.

According to advices, positive instructions have been given by the council of four to all commissions working on the reply to complete their reports by Monday.

If this order is carried out it is probable the reply will be framed early in the week, and will be immediately presented to the enemy delegation.

From reports coming from Paris, it seems that there is growing a sentiment in the council of four that alterations must be made in the treaty, but in what particular the terms will be modified is not as yet indicated.

Count von Brockdorff-Rantzau, head of the German peace mission, left Versailles last night for Germany. It is reported from Paris that he is expected to return Sunday.

French official circles are said to expect the Germans to refuse to sign the terms. A more hopeful sentiment is said to be apparent in Berlin.

The Italian claims to territory on the eastern shore of the Adriatic also are causing some uneasiness in peace conference circles. The Italian parliament will meet June 18, and Premier Orlando is demanding that a settlement be reached by that time.

Dispatches from Paris indicate the deadlock over the situation regarding Fiume and the Dalmatian coast is still a source of concern and that efforts to arrive at an agreement have been futile.

Admiral Kolchak's forces operating in European Russia are, it is admitted checked by the Bolsheviks, and it seems probable that there will be, to say the least, quite a serious delay in carrying the campaign to a successful conclusion.

Hungarian Bolshevik forces continue to advance against Czech troops between Budapest and Vienna.

French generals are said to be in command of the Czech army there.

WOMAN PASSERBY KILLED BY BOMB WHICH WRECKS JUDGE'S HOME

Partially wrecked home of Judge Charles C. Nott, Jr., of New York, whose life was sought by bomb plasters, and Judge Nott, Jr.

A woman was one of the victims of the latest "Red" bomb outrage. A bomb placed on the doorstep of the home of Judge Charles C. Nott, Jr., of New York, blew the woman to atoms when it exploded. The house was partially wrecked. Judge Nott was not home at the time. Mrs. Nott was thrown from her bed and injured. Every department of the government is aiding in tracking down the men who set bombs in an attempt to kill Attorney General Palmer, Mayor Davis of Cleveland, O., and other officials and prominent citizens throughout the country a few days ago.

333,303 Officers Returned During Month of May.

(By Associated Press)

Washington, June 7.—Return of the National Guard and National Army divisions from France has been completed, the War Department announced today, and the homeward movement of the regulars began this week with the embarkation of the Sixth division. The Fourth and Fifth divisions are scheduled for return this month.

Complete figures for the movement during May showed 333,303 officers and men were embarked during May. This was considerably in excess of recent estimates by department officials.

Demobilization has returned 2,391,639 officers and men to civil life and on June 3rd had reduced the American forces in Europe to less than 790,000.

American Delegation Apparently Firm in Determination to Hold Treaty Copies.

INQUIRY BEGINS MONDAY

Wilson will Take the Stand that Publication not Compatible With Public Good.

(By Associated Press)

Paris, June 7.—The American delegation to the peace conference apparently is firm in its decision to not authorize the publication of the German peace treaty until it is signed, and not even to communicate the official text in its present form to the United States Senate.

WILSON EXPECTED TO REFUSE REQUEST

(By Associated Press)

Washington, June 7.—Administration officials believe President Wilson's reply to the Senate resolution asking for the peace treaty with Germany will be that it is not compatible with the public interest to furnish the text at this time.

Preliminary preparations were being made today for the investigation to be conducted by the Senate Foreign Relations Committee into statements that copies of the unpublished treaty with Germany are in private hands in this country.

The inquiry is expected to take a wide scope. It is not expected that definite plans will be laid, however, until the committee meets to take up the subject Monday.

FLYNN EXPECTS EARLY ARRESTS IN BOMB PLOTS

(By Associated Press)

New York, June 7.—After a conference here today with police officers, William J. Flynn, head of the Department of Justice agents that are seeking the persons responsible for the recent bomb outrages, said:

"We do not expect to take action today. There are a hundred leads to be trailed out and there we are following carefully. We are making progress but I cannot say when definite action will be taken."

COURT ORDERS PLANT OPENED

(By Associated Press)

Toledo, June 7. — Federal Judge Killets today issued a temporary restraining order effective for ten days ordering the reopening of the Willys-Overland plant which has been closed since the fatal rioting of Tuesday. The order restrains interference with workers. The plant probably will be opened Monday.

GREENFIELD HAS NEW GUARD CO.

In connection with the reorganization movement of the Ohio National Guard word comes that Greenfield has taken the lead and practically every member of Company G of that city has enrolled in the new guard.

The movement is also on foot in this city and definite action is expected within a few days.

A dispatch from Columbus regarding Greenfield's action says:

"Ohio now has one company of National Guard—almost. Greenfield reported to Adjutant General Layton today that Company G of that city, formerly of the 166th Infantry, Rainbow Division, now has seventy-four men enrolled. Only sixty-five are required for a company under the new organization.

"Practically every member of the company who was with the 166th Infantry is said to have signed up in the new organization. Several new men also are included.

"Most of the men who returned with the 166th are expected to enlist in the regiment as reorganized for the National Guard. Companies in other cities are said to be progressing nicely with the reorganization.

"Before individual companies are accepted they must be inspected and approved by the Adjutant General and the War Department."

AUTO RACING AT COLUMBUS

At the Columbus Driving Park on Saturday and Sunday, June 14 and 15, there will be presented an elaborate motor program of speed racing, polo and ladies' style riding. Nothing of such magnitude has ever been attempted in Ohio.

Haugdahl, Horey, Koetzla, Cline, Endicott, Lampkin, Willard and others will handle the high-powered racing cars. Charley Adams and "Blondie" Stirling, two of the world's greatest polo players, will be on hand for this rough, rousing game.

Style driving for ladies is entirely new to Ohio but not to the country. Meets have been held in several southern cities, at Detroit and Erie, Pa. Decisions are to be rendered solely upon manipulation of the autos entered. A small, low-priced car has the same chance that a big one owns. It's all up to the driver's skill. In no way whatsoever is this a speed contest.

Colonel B. W. Hough, of the One Hundred and Sixty-sixth Infantry, has promised Chairman R. W. Read of Columbus motor racing board that he will preside at the presentation of trophy cups and medals to the winning ladies. The Rainbow band possibly will give a concert at the track each afternoon.

NEW SHAWLS QUAIN AS GRANDMOTHER'S

Are we going back to grandmother's quaintness? The new shawls make us think so.

The Osaka Mainichi said: "The adoption of the American amendment for the Monroe Doctrine and the failure of the racial amendment affords a most glaring contrast as between a great success for the United States and a great failure for Japan."

The Tokio Asahi says: "part of the blame should be placed at the door of European and American statesmen whose political conscience has been so besotted that they do not understand or respect the principle of justice and humanity except when it is politically used to their advantage."

FINDLAY—Twenty-two of 36 Methodist churches in the Findlay district of the West Ohio Conference have exceeded their centenary quotas.

OBERLIN—Ground was broken for the erection of a new municipal building here. The present town hall building has been dismantled.

THIEVES DISCARD SOME OF THE LOOT

Late Saturday morning a number of articles of small value, which had been taken in repair envelopes, were found near the old stove plant, where the burglars had looked over their loot and abandoned the articles.

The police are now working on a clue which developed in connection with finding of the articles.

FARM NOTES

Use of Acid Phosphate Not Making Land Sour.

"The notion of some people that the continued use of acid phosphate will make land acid has been disproved on the farm of H. A. Taylor, near Unionopolis, as well as on many other farms of Auglaize county," says H. J. Ridge, the county agricultural agent. Mr. Taylor has been applying acid phosphate for 10 years and grows luxuriant crops of clover, which would be impossible if the land were acid.

"On the other hand," says Mr. Taylor, "I know that I get $2 in return for every dollar spent on acid phosphate. In a rotation of corn, oats, wheat, and clover I apply 500 pounds—200 on wheat, 200 on corn, and 100 on oats. I think I ought to use even 325 pounds on the wheat and that it might pay to use 300 pounds on the corn." His opinion is strongly upheld by Mr. Ridge, who says that 800 pounds acid phosphate in a rotation will return a profit.

Jake White's Five Rules For Successful Dairying.

Jake White, veteran dairyman of Greenfield, Highland county, recommended to a group of dairy students the other day the following practices which he says have been largely responsible for his success.

1. Buy a purebred sire, a few good cows, and improve the herd by breeding.
2. Feed a ration that is palatable as well as balanced.
3. Keep the herd free from disease by rigid sanitation and by introducing few new animals.

4. Keep the cows quiet and satisfied, if you want big milk production.

5. Go after the business hard. Don't be afraid to borrow money.

Mr. White has been in the dairy business for over 25 years, and has had no competitor for years in supplying his home city of 4,300 population with 2,000 pints of milk a day from 115 to 120 of his purebred Jersey cows.

LIEUT. FORREST SMITH IS BACK

Former "Top" Sergeant of M Company, Forrest Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Al Smith, of Paint township, returned home Friday evening, taking his parents completely by surprise, as a short time ago they had word indicating that it would be in July or August before he reached home.

Lieut. Smith recently returned with the unit to which he was assigned after attaining his commission, and was discharged at Camp Dix. In this way he lost no time in reaching home, to the surprise and delight of his relatives and friends.

Lieut. Smith was popular with the members of M Company as first sergeant of the company, and has made good in every way, returning with the rank of Lieutenant which he received after long service at the front and hard drilling at officers' school.

WHITE OAK SOLID AFTER NINETY YEARS

Contractor W. K. Salter made a peculiar find and one that is generally conceded to be unusual; in remodeling the rear of the building owned and occupied as a drug house by George H. Fickard & Co., in West Main street, he removed the flooring from white oak joist that were found to be as solid as the day they were placed in the building.

The joist were a few inches from the ground and there was not a particle of ventilation thereunder. Even where the joist were imbedded in the brick wall over 90 years since they do not show the first signs of decay. — Circleville Herald.

"AG" COURSE AS POPULAR MOVE

The action of the Board of Education and Supt. McClain in seeking to incorporate a strong agricultural course in the Washington schools, is expected to be a most popular move and one which will meet with general approval of patrons of the schools. The step is an advanced one and is indicative that the Washington schools are not standing still, but seize every opportunity to add to the prestige of the schools by the service rendered.

Within a short time it is expected some definite word will be received as to whether the application was granted, and then the employment of a suitable teacher—one who knows agriculture from years of experience and training—will be in order.

This being a pronounced agricultural community, the need of such a course is felt by those in charge of the schools.

The Locusts

Learned men state that this county is only going to be visited in spots by the seventeen year locusts. We are all thankful for the assurance because it means a great deal now to have the assurances of the scientists on subjects like the habits, customs and depredations of the locusts and like pests which, for some reason impossible for our minds to grasp, have been coming, at regular intervals, cause loss and annoyance.

The present day scientists and their predecessors have been checking up and keeping books on the locusts so that they are able to foretell, with a considerable certainty, just about what the locusts are going to do and where the largest numbers are going to select their stopping places.

Not particularly interested in the locusts except in the one year in eighteen, busy men go about their own affairs and forget just how much damage they did do on their last visit. As a consequence when we contemplate the visit of the locusts our minds revert to those ancestors who visited Pharaoh's domain. The havoc those locusts wrought in Egypt is one of the Sunday school impressions that has lingered with us.

These seventeen year locusts are not so bad, we feel sure, as the swarm which settled over Egypt.

Fact and Prospect

Perhaps some of the more optimistically inclined individuals may be able to see something wrong with the growing wheat in Fayette county, perhaps some of the more expert observers may be able to figure out some way in which present conditions might be improved on or perhaps some of the more gloomy individuals may be able to see, in the future, some menace which should cause worry, but to the general run of "happy-go-lucky" persons who accept thankfully the many blessings we have and refuse to worry about troubles which, in all probability will never happen, Fayette county's growing wheat crop is just about the grandest sight the eye of man has ever been permitted to feast upon.

The wheat is standing up straight and heading out, growing as thick as the "hair on a dog's back," not in one field nor in a few fields, but in almost every wheat field, and every farm has one or more wheat fields. It looks like Fayette county alone could feed the whole state for a year at least.

Out in Kansas the expert observers say that the wheat crop of the Sunflower state will be sufficient to feed the whole nation for a year, and Kansas is only one wheat state.

When the ripened grain is put into the shock, in a few weeks now the farmer can sit on his front verandah, while he "cools off" in the evening breezes, see across the stubble field, the thickly dotted shocks, revealed in the light of the fitful flashes of the fireflies' lantern, realizing that his wheat is worth more than two dollars per bushel, the price secured by government guarantee, and count himself a man blessed.

It's a joy to be able to get out into the rural districts and see the plenty which nature has sent us. It's a joy to see the farmer and realize that he has come into his kingdom. The farmer should be a happy and contented man.

Burleson Explains

The nation thought that the wire systems of the country were again back in the control of their owners, the private corporations, after having been under the control of the federal government since last August.

The rumblings of disaffection among employees, attaining in some instances the proportions of a strike menace, Mr. Burleson announces, had no part in framing the action taken; the higher rates ordered by Mr. Burleson are to remain in effect now that the action of the Postmaster General, in that respect, has been upheld by the supreme court of the nation.

A measure of control, aimed to prevent any disturbing disarrangements between employers and employees, is retained by the government and later explanations indicate that first impressions of entire surrender of control were not warranted.

Postmaster General Burleson has, perhaps, been more generally censured by the people and more roundly abused by the politicians for taking over the wire systems than for any other one of his many arbitrary acts during the war period.

Federal control of utilities is not popular yet in the United States and the universal expressions of satisfaction which greeted the order supposed to return the systems to private control seems proof enough of that fact.

Notwithstanding that part of his first announcement that labor conditions did not influence his action, the preparations for a general strike among operators immediately the impression became general that the government grip was broken, seems to have played a part in the hurried explanation that the order was not so sweeping in its effect.

POETRY FOR TODAY

DON'T HURRY LITTLE JIM.
Don't be in a hurry with little Jim.
God knew 'twould take years for a man to grow
He knew the job would be very slow,
So don't you be in a hurry with Jim.
Perhaps Jim is wasteful, perhaps he is slow,
Perhaps Jim is wasteful, perhaps elders know,
Well, that's the way God grows a man.
If it could be done better (you know God can),
He would have tried some other plan.
Yes, but He didn't; so don't you fret,
Jim stumbles today, but he'll come right yet.
God knew 'twould take years to grow
a man.
He knew the job would be slow and long,
To grow a man with a will that is strong.
A will that will break ever stone in his way,
A will that will climb to God's mountain height,
A will that will ben every force to the right,
A will that will bring a new, glorious day:
If God can wait for little Jim,
Then don't you be in a hurry with him.

Mrs. Carrie B. Willis and daughter Mrs. C. Graham Beckel brought to gether Friday afternoon a congenial group of Mrs. R. O. Young's friends for a delightful renewal of acquaintance before Mrs. Young returns to Asheville, N. C.

It was an exceedingly pretty party, June roses in fragrant bloom and graceful arrangement throughout, Mrs. Beckel's attractive home.

An elaborate collation was served Mrs. C. P. Ballard assisting in the cordial hospitalities.

An affair of pre-eminent pleasure in Sunday School circles was the social session at Grace M. E. Church, Friday night, when Mrs. D. H. Rowe's Sunday School Class of women entertained their husbands and also the Men's Bible Class and their wives.

Preparations had been made on an elaborate scale and the evening proved thoroughly successful and one of the most delightful among a number of affairs at which this class has filled the role of entertainers.

At the close of the program which called forth enthusiastic appreciation the guests adjourned to the dining room and entered into an amusing contest, "Things We Should Know."

Delicious refreshments consisting

The Men's Class is planning to return the courtesy of Mrs. Rowe's class in the near future.

Ten women of the Golden Rule Class of the Sugar Grove Church with three visitors were indebted to Mrs. John Weade Thursday afternoon for most enjoyable entertainment.

Tempting refreshments were served by the hostess.

The informal dance given by the Knights of Pythias at their Castle Friday evening was pronounced a very delightful affair.

"I am engaged to the whole A. E. E." Miss Janis said. "It is simply impossible for me to pick out, any one of those thousands of wonderful boys. Some people talk of my having sacrificed a lot of money by giving up my engagements here. I would not have missed the education I have in knowing Americans as they were in the army in France for all the money in the world. They are healthy in body mind and heart. CRUSADERS' GRAVES ARE DECORATED

The W. C. T. U. assembled Friday at 4:30 p. m. to the Y. W. C. A. rooms, arrangements having been made for machines to take the members of the Union to the cemetery, where beautiful and impressive services were held in memory of the early crusaders and other deceased members of the Union, who now number sixty-five. An abundance of beautiful flowers were distributed, the friends and members of the Union having been most generous in their offering of flowers, which were of unusual beauty. Not only the graves of the W. C. T. U. ladies were remembered but many of the soldiers' graves as well.

The Union wishes to thank all those who so generously contributed the beautiful flowers.

The services were conducted by Rev. Cherrington. His theme was the pioneer work of these early crusaders and how it was fundamental to the achievements of the present hour, and, in line with all the great advancement, and discoveries, served as the pioneer to blaze the way. He also read a very interesting account of a meeting held in our own Washington C. H., 45 years ago just following a great victory for our beloved city in the temperance cause. This was the meeting addressed by Dr. Dio Lewis, the noted temperance worker, who so stirred local workers. Dr. Lewis was welcomed by Mrs. George Carpenter, wife of the pastor of the local Presbyterian church at that time and in his response said that "none but God can ever know how much he felt was owed to this town—a town positively free from the curse of liquor selling."

Rev. Cherrington enlarged upon the recognition of Washington C. H. as the early home of the crusade movement, closing his address with the thought that we, as citizens, of Washington C. H. today have much to be thankful for when we realize the sturdy Godly men and women who lived such noble unselfish lives almost a half-century ago. It surely behooves us as citizens to hold high the banner of temperance and high ideals that they may not have wrought in vain.

FLOWER MISSION DAY OBSERVED FRIDAY

Flower Mission Day was observed Friday at the Fayette County Infirmary and the Children's Home by the County W. C. T. U. Although there was not as large a representation of members as in former years, the program was considered one of the best ever presented on this day.

Each participant entered into his or her part of the splendid program with marked interest which delighted the listeners.

The Jeffersonville, Sugar Grove and Washington units were represented on the program which was presented at both the Infirmary and Children's Home and consisted of vocal and piano solos, readings, songs, a zither solo and a vocal duet. Those who contributed of their talents so generously were: Miss Marguerite Wilson, Mr. Brenton Zimmerman, Masters Dwight and Forest Creamer, Little Miss Blessing, Miss Lou Denny, Mrs. S. C. Creamer, Miss Icy Allen, Francis Marion Kennedy, Ralph Briggs and Norman Price.

In keeping with the day the Union always presents the old people and children with flowers and a treat. Friday they gave the inmates oranges, bananas and candy and the children ice cream cones.

BURGLARS SECURE JEWELRY VALUED AT NEAR $1,000

Burglars Visit The Worrell Jewelry Store Some Time During Friday Night and Make Rich Haul.

Enter by Cutting Panel From Rear Door and Take Time to Looting Place, Leaving Little Clew.

One of the greatest robberies taking place in this city in a period of several years occurred some time Friday night when two burglars rifled the Worrell Jewelry Store of upward of $1,000 worth of jewelry, and escaped without leaving any definite clew behind that would greatly aid the police in ferreting out the guilty ones.

Entrance was gained by way of a rear door, where a panel was drilled and cut out making an aperture large enough to admit a good sized man made entrance comparatively easy.

A board had been removed from the high board fence about the rear lot of the building, and a door to a vacant room immediately back of the store had either been left open or the lock was picked. It was quite evident that the burglars knew every foot of the ground, their only blunder being made in drilling two holes high up in the door before attacking the thin panel, indicating the bungling work of amateurs.

Once inside the store the burglars apparently took their time to looting the place thoroughly, opening every drawer, display case, delving into show cases and trying the combination on the safe, where a large quantity of the more valuable jewelry was stored. The safe was not damaged, and the men gave up the attempt on the safe after very little effort.

Two tracks clearly indicated that a pair of burglars had done the work, and that both of them apparently were grown men.

The articles stolen included 12 women's wrist watches, ranging in value from $25 to $50 each; 9 lavalieres; 6 sets gold collar buttons and shirt studs; 8 silver match boxes; a large number of pieces of silverware, including some fancy pearl-handled goods, solid silver spoons, etc. A number of sets of cuff buttons, numerous lockets; several gold-filled watches and a dozen silver watches; a handful of gold rings for babies; a dozen Waterman pens valued at $5 each, and numerous other articles of considerable value.

A solid gold Knights of Pythias emblem was included in the list. A Masonic emblem had been torn off and left loose upon the card. A half dozen gold handled penknives and several watch chains were included.

The night police neither heard nor saw anything that aroused their suspicions, and the robbery was not discovered until late Saturday morning.

The robbery recalls a big robbery in the same building in 1855, when D. Lurtwangler had a jewelry store in the room. At that time the burglar, among other things, took a large number of watches and placed them in a dinner bucket. Outside of this city a few miles the burglar stopped at a sugar camp and ate a late meal with the workers. While he was engaged in eating, a boy, who is now a well known business man in this city, took occasion to look into the dinner bucket carried by the man, discovered the watches and reported the find. The man was arrested and sentenced to a long term in the Ohio Penitentiary.

FORD IS STOLEN ABANDONED HERE

While Jesse W. Wilson and family were attending the social at Grace Church Friday night, some unknown sneak thief took possession of his Ford touring car and after driving it for some time abandoned it on Yeoman street, where it was found later in the night after a search had been instituted by the authorities.

While there is little clew to work on the authorities are making an investigation in the hope of locating the thief and placing a formal charge of grand larceny against him, with a view of landing him in state prison.

The officials are weary of such cases and have announced their intention of prosecuting such so-called "joy riders" just the same as the ordinary automobile thief, the offense being just as serious as that committed by the professional auto thief.

The CHENEY
PHONOGRAPH

THE orchestral section of the Cheney is one of the important and exclusive features which have given this instrument acknowledged supremacy in sweetness and purity of tone.

Note that it is made from seasoned wood, which adds a mellow quality to the tones as they pass through.

Yet more important, note that the old megaphone principle has been discarded for a more scientific method of tone amplification through a series of chambers, graduated in size. These chambers will preserve a perfect balance in reproducing band, orchestra or other ensemble selections. Each voice or instrument is readily recognized—promptly identified.

This is only one of many improvements that have placed the Cheney in a class apart. Call at our store and let us show you the tone arm, the acoustical throat, the reproducer, the resonator. Best of all, let us show you the artistic Cheney cabinets in period design. They fittingly enshrine the superior Cheney tonal system.

TAYLOR CHOSEN TO TAKE PART IN OLYMPIC SERIES

Former Well Known Local Man Now on Way to Paris to Win Jump.

Was Picked by Pershing's Committee For Great Inter-Allied Olympic Event.

Lieut. William H. Taylor, familiarly known to his host of friends in this city as "Bill," who learned the standing high jump at the Y. M. C. A. in this city and later became the world's champion high and broad jumper, is now on his way to Paris to take part in the great Inter-Allied Olympic contests which occur there during the last of this month, and where it is expected he will easily defeat all comers from other nations and win new honors.

Taylor, while in the military service, won the rank of Second Lieutenant.

Taylor has a record of 5 feet and 7 inches (unofficial) in the standing high jump and an official record of 5 feet 6 inches, won in the A. A. U. Outdoor Championship meet in New York in 1916.

Regarding Taylor the following article which is not entirely correct, from a Zanesville paper says:

"Lieut. William H. Taylor of this city, national standing high and broad jump champion and world record holder, will leave Sunday for New York and will sail Tuesday for overseas, having been selected by General Pershing's committee to represent the United States army track teams in the Inter-Allied Olympic games in Paris in June. Several other national champions who were in the army will sail with Taylor to enter the contests.

"Taylor learned to jump at the local Y. M. C. A. He won both championships in New York this spring after being out of the game two years and made a new world's record for the standing high jump, the former record being five feet four and one-eighth inches, while he made five feet four and one-quarter inches. He will compete in the broad jump only in Paris, the high jump not being on the program.

"Taylor enlisted with the headquarters company of the old Seventh O. N. G. regiment and was later transferred to the Infantry Replacement camp at Camp Lee, as musketry instructor, and was commissioned second lieutenant. For some time he has been employed as telegrapher for the Standard Oil Co., at Woodsfield. During his absence Mrs. Taylor and baby will visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Large on Putnam avenue."

CLAIMS REGARDING WILLARD UNDERWOOD STILL CONFLICTING

The investigation started some time ago as to the fate of Willard Underwood, son of Mrs. Sarah Underwood, of near "Cozy Corner" in Paint township, has brought a cablegram from some of the authorities stating that the young man reported for duty March 31st.

However not a word has been received other than the above message from Adjutant General, indicating that the young man is still alive. In fact the A. E. F. authorities continue to declare that he lost his life, so that his mother and other relatives are still in doubt as to whether he is living or dead.

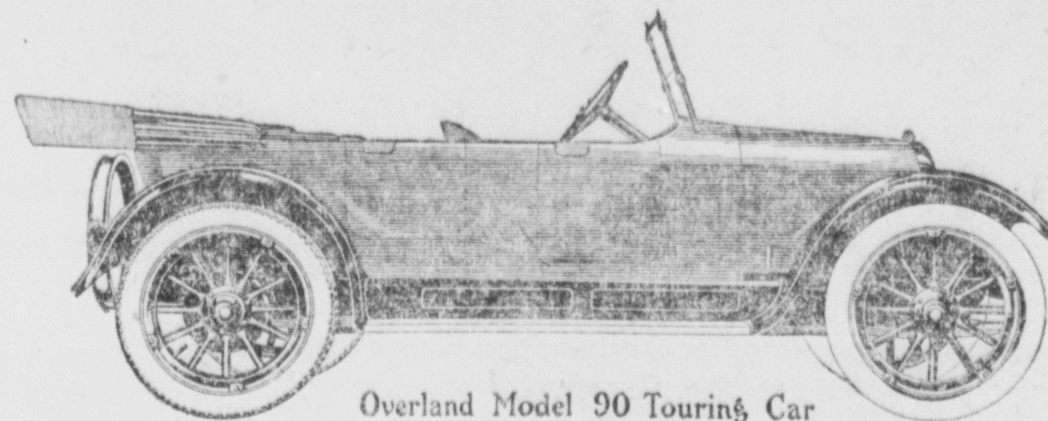

Miss Mary Robinson of the Home Service Department of the Red Cross has been conducting the inquiry.

WHAT CHIROPRACTIC HAS DONE

Chiropractic is based upon a knowledge of the structure and function of the human body, especially that of the brain, vertebral column, spinal cord and the nerves emanating therefrom. The brain is the power plant of the body, the nerves are the wires which conduct its power. Pressure on a nerve at the opening where it leaves the vertebral column, will permit disease in that organ or tissue at which the nerve ends, for without power it cannot either live or function.

Chiropractors are successfully removing the cause of Stomach, Bowel, Liver and Kidney troubles; Rheumatism, troubles of the Head, Throat, Lungs and other organs. Both acute and chronic cases yield readily to Chiropractic. Call and investigate this wonderful science. It's a pleasure to tell you about it.

Why take expensive vacation trips to watering places and sanitariums only to return but little, if any, benefited? You can have health in your own city and have it abundantly. You need not leave your business but can look after it and take adjustments in the evenings or at any convenient hour during the day. Call to see me while you may and thus prolong your life and enjoy the blessings of health.

Ninety-five per cent of humanity die forty years too soon and all on account of not having the displacements in their spinal column reduced. You would never have aches or pains or experience sick days if your nerves were free to act, and the only way these nerves can be released from deadly pressure is by unique hand adjustment.
